

We're a boutique UX design studio based in Goa started by NID Alumni.

Our clients involve startups and museums around the world solving various problems through the use of technology.

We're looking for full time teammates to join our team in Panaji, Goa and build successful long term careers.

Job Description

Lead UX Designer

The Lead UX Designer is someone who can participate in the following way:

Understanding requirements through client meetings and user research.

Distilling functional requirements to understand user roles and personas as well as business goals to produce and document it in an appropriate format.

Helping junior UX designers design intuitive user experience that meets the above documented user and business objectives.

Helping junior UX designers documentation such as low-fidelity wireframes, interactive prototypes, flow charts, mockups and other specifications to communicate the design.

Developing usability tests and metrics to track & analyze the designs.

Working with the UI designers to create final deliverables.

Experience Needed

A minimum of 3 years experience delivering successful user experiences in digital products

Work Details

Work hours : 9.30AM to 6pm,

6 days a week (Monday to Saturday)

Location : Panaji Goa

Probation period : 2 months

Interested?

Send your CV and portfolio to mediyumcreative@gmail.com